

Welcome to the December Newsletter!

A Moment With Euphoria

What's happening in December?

Welcome everyone to the very first edition of my newsletter, Christmas Edition! Thank you so much for your patience and support as I transition to this exciting new format. I'm thrilled to have you here!

Here's what I've been up to in the last little while!

New Apartment in Braddon

I'm thrilled to share that I now have a private incall apartment in Braddon! A lovely and discreet space for in-person bookings. If you'd like to arrange a session, jump on my website and send through your booking enquiry (Don't forget to use your $50 off offer!) I'm ecstatic to have my ever-growing lingerie collection, outfits, toys, heels, fluffy blankets and supplies all in one easily accessible place! Along with moody lighting, subtle scents and other small thoughtful touches, I am now able to curate the luxurious, tailored experience I want for my wonderful clients, showcasing a comfortable space to be myself and what Euphoria is all about. I will be trialling this arrangement for 3 months to see if it's going to work for me longer term, so if hotels have put you off seeing me in the past, now's the time to make a booking!

Fresh New Content

Don't worry I have still been busy creating! New unreleased videos include solo vids, Christmas themed content, and the first of hopefully many, much requested boat-themed content! Additionally, I've done quite a few photoshoots recently that I'll be uploading, including a halloween themed little red riding hood shoot with Animosity_Art for Suicide Girls that will go live in a few months. Recently, a lovely client purchased me some stunning Honey Birdette lingerie, the always amazing Roarr_Boudoir did some great photos for me in my new apartment.

Life Updates from Euphoria

I bought my house! After a long and painful settlement process (over 6 months!) I finally settled on my new home! I couldn't have done it without this job and the support of all of you! I don't let that fact escape me, all your bookings, content purchases, video calls and tips have all been for this moment. From the bottom of my heart, thank you.

The timing couldn't have been better as I jetted off to Bali the following week for a much needed break. I spent 2 luxurious weeks relaxing in one of my favourite places in the world. 1 week in Ubud in a private villa exploring the countryside and another week in a resort getting massages by the pool. It's been 8 years since I'd last been to Bali and a lot has changed, but it was an amazing trip.

I bought a boat! After getting my license, I finally got to take my new little boat out on the water on my recent tour to Narooma. I was so nervous! But everything went as smooth as it could have! It was an absolute blast, but I already want to upgrade to a bigger and faster one now hehe I shot my first naughty video, a blowjob with CIMWS. He must have been aroused being out in the open like that, his cock was so incredibly hard and he came in my mouth so quickly. You can purchase the video below!

Stay tuned for more updates, content previews, and special offers in the upcoming editions of this newsletter. I can't wait to share even more with you!

Wishing you all a happy Christmas and holiday period!

With love,
Euphoria xoxo

Client of the Month

I got to catch up with an old client that I hadn't seen in about a year! I'd not heard from him since our last date, and often wondered what had happened. I was elated to hear from him and organize a date. We went for brunch before heading back to my apartment for playtime. He is a n amazing cook and stocked me up on several days worth of pre-cooked meals! Which was perfect for a Friday while I stay in town and work all weekend. We also had some champagne to celebrate while we caught up on a years worth of life events. Needless to say my cup was so full and I didn't want to say goodbye! Till we meet again in the new year lover! Xx

Thanks for taking a Moment with Euphoria xoxo
